2021 Albarino (Estate)

Retail - $29

15% off - $24.65

20% off - $23.20

The 2021 version of this wine is exceptional. It is very pale in color with loads of fruit on the nose, hints of peach, apricot, and citrus dominate. It has soft tannins with a silky mouthfeel. The flavors develop quickly on the palate, kiwi and key lime. A savory finish with aromatics lingering will entice you back for more.

2021 Vermentino (Estate)

Retail - $29

15% off - $24.65

20% off - $23.20

This wine has a beautiful golden hue. The nose is mouthwatering with hints of citrus and tropical fruit. There is an explosion of flavors across the palate which is delightful and bright. The mouthfeel is soft and silky with a lovely fine texture. This wine finishes long and juicy. 91 Points, Editor's Choice - Wine Enthusiast. Best of Show, Best of Class, Double Gold - Foothill Wine Fest.

Rosé Spumante

Retail - $27

15% off - $22.95

20% off - $21.60

This wine is produced in Italy's Treviso Region, in the town of Cal San Martino. The wine is composed of 100% Incrocio Manzoni, which is a cross between Rabosa Piave and Moscato Ambugro. The bright and fresh expression of Prosecco rosé finishes totally dry.

2018 Amador Barbera

Retail - $31

15% off - $26.35

20% off - $24.80

Nice nose with hints of ripe plums and dark cherries and a light touch of oak. Purple black color with nice weight in the glass makes it a swirler's delight. The taste is silky and fresh with flavors developing all along the palate. The finish is long and develops slowly into a big juicy finale. 90 Points - Wine Enthusiast. Gold Medal - 2022 SFCWC.

2017 Zinfandel (Estate)

Retail - $38

15% off - $32.30

20% off - $30.40

The nose is full of dark fruit and ripe plum, a classic Amador County bouquet. The mouth feel is silky and smooth with soft tannins. The flavors are bright and black cherry dominates. This is a big, weighty wine. It finishes long with lots of soft holiday spices. 90 points each - Wine Enthusiast & James Suckling.
